The Winter Lecture Series Continues...

J Class World Championships – March 8th

Please join Brad Read and Rob Migliaccio for an exciting presentation about the J Class World Championship Regatta which took place in Newport this past August. Rob will present a slideshow consisting of his stunning images from the event, during which Brad will provide exciting commentary about the event and the Class, as well as his experience as the tactician aboard Hanuman, which was skippered by his brother, Ken Read. Brad will also provide an update on the Volvo stop-over in Newport slated for May of this year.

Sail Trim with Kimo Worthington – April 27th

On April 27th, new club member and professional sailor, Kimo Worthington will help us get ready for the summer season with a presentation on sail trim.

Annual Cruise Itinerary Set

After several meetings of members interested in participating in the annual cruise, the itinerary has been set. The cruise will begin on July 13, 2018 and will go forward as follows:

Total distance covered: 130 Nautical Miles

Other Cruise News

The Memorial Day Cruise will return to New York Yacht Club. The specifics of that will be forthcoming. Also, we will have a new event this year, a pocket cruise designed to encourage small boats owners and sailors new to cruising to participate. The destination will be Battleship Cove. For those that have small boats, bunks will be available on the USS Massachusetts. That event will take place over Victory Weekend, August 12 and 13. Look for more details to follow.

COMMODORE'S QUARTERS

Like many of our members, I recently ventured to Florida for some sunshine and warmth. However, unlike our members, I was actually attending a conference: the US Sailing Leadership Forum in St. Pete's Beach. There were 500 attendees and I met Flag Officers, Club Managers, Race Officials, Youth Sailing Leaders, Instructors, Coaches, Olympians and other rock-star sailors from all across the country. Throughout the 3-day event, there were multiple seminars and lectures each hour on everything from the Pros and Cons of Club-owned fleets, to Women in Sailing Leadership, to Team Racing (presented by one of our newest BYC members Amanda Callahan), to Racing Rules presented by the rules man himself... Dave Perry.

We learned how to connect with the digital native Millennials, and how to make our Clubs more appealing to this age group, as well as challenging us to never stop thinking about what we offer and how we offer it. I came away with some great ideas and fully charged. I also came away with the confirmed knowledge that we truly have a great club and we are doing a lot of things right and providing a lot of added value to our membership. So while you might see some new things in the upcoming months, you will also see the same dedication and commitment from the Board that serves you.

Now, please pass the sunscreen and a Dark and Stormy, as I wish to return to the Sunshine State... if only in my dreams.

2018 Leukemia Cup Regatta

On February 10th, 35 Commodores, Flag Officers and Race Chairs from around Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts gathered at the BYC for networking and information sharing about this year's Leukemia Cup Regatta. Barrington, Beverly, Bristol, Conanicut, Duxbury, East Greenwich, Ida Lewis, Newport, New York, and Tiverton yacht clubs were all represented at the meeting.

This flagship meeting, hosted by Leukemia Cup Regatta planning committee members Joe Brito and Mary Jo Finkenstaedt, offered a networking opportunity for area commodores, and discussions that sparked interest and ideas for fund-raising activities surrounding the event.

Attendees were enthusiastic and eager to share experience and ideas for support and participation in this year's June 2nd event at the New York Yacht Club.

In addition to participating in the regatta, some of the fundraising ideas shared were:

- Welcome captains and crews to run their own Individual/team fundraising programs for their yacht
- Donate an auction item for the event
- Build/invite corporate teams to compete in the event (12 meter boats may be available for lease for the event)
- Host a fund-raising event at your own club (dinner or other)
- Host a mini LC Regatta at your own club
- Offer opportunities to donate at your club event throughout the summer
- Make all members aware of the web pages for making cash donations to the cause
- Spread the word about Sponsorship opportunities

Also new this year is the "Yacht Club Challenge." Funds raised by individuals and teams through racing and non-racing efforts will be totaled by club throughout the summer season, and an award will be presented to the club with the highest total at the end of the season.

Finally, the planning committee is discussing the idea of encouraging youth participation in the regatta this year – recognizing that young people are eager to compete/take part in these events, and that they can also be very effective at fundraising. We will keep you posted on how this idea is evolving.

So, please, get your teams together, and spread the word! Talk to friends, business owners, and set your own fund-raising ideas in motion. Be part of the "feel good" efforts to help people in need, while enjoying your passion. You will have the opportunity to register online starting in April. Stay tuned for more information.

Mark your calendars – Friday June 1st

Join us for an enchanting "Evening at Harbor Court", including hors d'oeuvres and cocktails, music, and both a live and silent auction. Saturday after the regatta, enjoy dancing with music by Night Rhythm and a barbecue on the lawn of the New York Yacht Club, with an amazing view of Newport harbor and the Newport Pell Bridge.

Your funds will accelerate innovative lifesaving treatments, and make drug and insurance co-payments affordable to hundreds of local patients suffering from Leukemia and Lymphoma. They will also help underwrite ground and air transportation, and lodging assistance to local patients and their families.
